

Spelling list: 31 Get information from texts invite	Invite means to ask someone to come somewhere with you.

contact	Contact is a verb that means to speak to someone. It can be by phone, email, text message or letter.
email	An email is a text you write to someone using a computer.
punctuation	Comma, full stop, question mark and exclamation marks are types of punctuation .
letter	A letter is a type of text that you write to someone else. It has an address in the top right corner of the person who writes the letter .
where	Where is a question word that we use to ask about a place.
directions	Directions are a type of text that tell you where to go to get somewhere.
exclamation	An exclamation mark is a type of punctuation used to show emotion in writing.
recipe	A recipe is a text that tells you how to cook something.
advert	An advert is a type of text used to sell or advertise something.
opposite	Opposite is a preposition meaning on the other side.
leisure	Leisure is another word for free time.
college	College is a place where people go to study further education.
when	When is a question word used to ask about a time.