

Spelling list: High-frequency words in order: 41-50

Grow your vocabulary with these key words! These high-frequency words are often used in daily life, so being able to spell them will help you with reading and writing. Use them in the learning activities below to make progress.

not	I do not like garlic.
then	Close the curtains then switch on the light.
were	The fireworks were a wonderful spectacle.
go	Where did you go last night?
little	He asked them to stay a little longer.
as	He waved as he left the stage.
no	There are no rooms free at the hotel.
mum	Please thank your mum for her help.
one	There was only one pen left in the box.
them	My trousers have a rip in them .