

Spelling list: Commonly misspelt words list 10

perseverance	Through perseverance you will learn to spell most words.
pigeon	The pigeon is a common bird in many city centres.
possession	A conqueror is someone who gains possession or control of a country by force or war.
precede	To precede means to come before.
preferable	In my view, sunshine is preferable to rain.
preference	He has a preference for classical music.
preliminary	It was the preliminary round.
premises	The shop was so successful that it moved to bigger premises .
principal	In some schools, the headteacher is known as the principal .
principle	He can be trusted because he's widely known as a man of principle .
privilege	It was a great privilege to work with the artist.
procedure	The dentist explained the procedure would be painless.
proceed	Please proceed to the next question.
professor	The professor gave a lecture on ancient history.
proprietary	In order to obtain a patent, it may be necessary to disclose proprietary information about the design process.
psychology	My brother is studying psychology at college.
questionnaire	Please complete the questionnaire .
reasonable	Those jeans were a reasonable price.

receive

Did you receive my last letter?

recommend

I highly recommend the new Italian restaurant in town because the food was delicious!