

Spelling list: LAURUS: Year 8, set 3

Vocabulary up to, and including, the story of Circe s Island.

flourish	These plants will flourish in full sun.
meteorology	The scientific study of the weather is called meteorology .
agriculture	Agriculture is vital in providing food for the world.
reconnoitre	The army agreed to reconnoitre against the enemy.
ravenously	He ravenously ate the sandwich. reckless	The driver was reckless as he sped down the street.
solitary	He was a solitary person and liked to be on his own.
embarrassed	I was so embarrassed by the bruise on my chin.
regaled	Odysseus regaled him with stories of Troy.
inhuman	The song was inhuman and haunting.
empathy	When a person demonstrates understanding or the shared feelings of another person.
savage	Wolves can be savage and wild.
courteously	Courteously , she welcomed him into the house.
remnant	All that remained was a last remnant of the cathedral.
gallivanting	She went off gallivanting to the shops to buy new clothes.