

Spelling list: Weekly Words Half-Term 1

cascade	If something is to cascade it is to pour downwards rapidly and in large quantities.
idol	An idol is a person or thing that is greatly admired, loved or worshipped.
censor	To cancel is to prevent something from being seen or heard. E.g, the explicit language was censored.
illicit	Illicit means forbidden or illegal.
credibility	Credibility is how believable something or someone is based on their expertise.
impoverished	Someone is impoverished if they have been made extremely poor and live in poverty.
denouement	The denouement is the end of a story or play, when all loose ends are tied up.
mantra	A mantra is a phrase or slogan that is repeated again and again.
academic	If something is academic , it is relating to school, study or university. E.g, the university lecturer is an academic .
fidelity	Fidelity is faithfulness to a person, cause, or belief, demonstrated by continuing loyalty and support.
avaricious	An avaricious person is someone who is greedy and miserly.
fray	When it is used as a noun, a fray is a battle or fight.
miser	A miser is a person who hoards wealth and spends as little money as possible.