

Spelling list: LAURUS Year 8 - Beowulf 2

onslaught	An onslaught is a fierce or destructive attack.
wield	The verb wield means to hold or use a weapon. E.g, He wielded the heavy sword with ease.
loathsome	If something is loathsome , it causes hatred or disgust. E.g, the loathsome beast lived in the swamp.
legendary	If someone or something is legendary , it is well-known and based on myth.
gluttonous	To be gluttonous is to be excessively greedy.
valour	To have valour is to have great courage in the face of danger.
hospitality	Hospitality is the friendly and generous reception and entertainment of guests, visitors, or strangers.
generosity	Generosity is the quality of being kind and giving.
ceremoniousness	Ceremoniousness is the state of being incredibly formal and grand.
valiant	To be valiant is to be brave and courageous in battle.
fidelity	Fidelity is faithfulness to a person, cause, or belief, demonstrated by continuing loyalty and support.
discipline	Discipline is the act of training and encouraging people to behave in the way that they should.
industriousness	Industriousness is synonymous with hard work, devotion and diligence.
renowned	If someone is renowned they are known and talked about because of their talent in a particular area. E.g, he was a renowned gymnast.