Spelling list: LAURUS Year 8 - Beowulf 2

onslaught	An onslaught is a fierce or destructive attack.
3	.

The verb wield means to hold or use a weapon. E.g, He wielded the heavy wield sword with ease.

If something is loathsome, it causes hatred or disgust. E.g, the loathsome loathsome beast lived in the swamp.

legendary If someone or something is legendary, it is well-known and based on myth.

gluttonous To be gluttonous is to be excessively greedy.

valour To have valour is to have great courage in the face of danger.

Hospitality is the friendly and generous reception and entertainment of hospitality guests, visitors, or strangers.

generosity Generosity is the quality of being kind and giving.

valiant To be valiant is to be brave and courageous in battle.

Fidelity is faithfulness to a person, cause, or belief, demonstrated by fidelity continuing loyalty and support.

Discipline is the act of training and encouraging people to behave in the discipline way that they should.

industriousness Industriousness is synonymous with hard work, devotion and diligence.

If someone is renowned they are known and talked about because of their renowned talent in a particular area. E.g, he was a renowned gymnast.