

Spelling list: Noughts and Crosses

The Prologue - key words

alibi	Tom had no alibi .
barrier	A wooden barrier built out into the sea to stop the longshore drift of sand and shingle and so cause the beach to grow.
bitter	Who is so lonely but feels bitter and doesn't believe he can make friends?
boundary	Don't play outside of the school's boundary .
chauffeur	The chauffeur drove us around town.
contempt	To look at someone with contempt is disrespectful.
delusion	My friend is under the delusion that everyone likes her.
discrimination	Discrimination towards Jewish people is called anti-Semitism.
education	Education is the formal process of giving and receiving instruction.
embarrassed	I was so embarrassed by the bruise on my chin.
friend	My best friend never ceases to amuse me.
humiliate	She tried to humiliate her friend in public.
hypocrite	She's no friend, she's a hypocrite .
liberation	Liberation of the country came after people fought for freedom.
malicious	It was a malicious act to break the window.
militia	The man chose to fight in a rebel militia .
opportunity	He was delighted to have the opportunity .