

Spelling list: Winter Words

Vocab words for describing cold weather.

blizzard	A blizzard is a snowstorm.
blustery	It was a blustery day and leaves fell from the trees.
brisk	The wind was brisk .
chilly	She was feeling chilly so she put on a coat.
flurries	The snow fell in flurries .
frigid	We are expecting frigid temperatures and lots of snow.
frosty	It was a frosty morning and we had to be careful when walking outside.
frozen	The pathway was frozen and he slipped.
ice	Take care not to skid on the ice .
icicle	An icicle hung from the window.
icy	An icy draught swept through the street.
nippy	The wind was nippy .
slippery	When it is icy, the path is slippery .
slush	The snow turned to slush .
snow	My children love to sledge in the snow .
snowflake	The snowflake fell on my nose.
storm	There's a bad storm coming tonight.
windy	We fly our kites when it is windy .