Spelling list: Less / ness suffix - Red

merciless	The merciless dictator imprisoned his enemies.
flawless	The diamond was flawless as it had no cracks or marks.
motionless	The runner had to remain motionless until the starting gun fired.
regardless	The internet allows learners to collaborate with each other regardless of where they live in the world.
ruthless	It was ruthless to imprison the man when all he had done was steal a piece of bread as he was hungry.
reckless	His father wanted him to stop being reckless and to put a bicycle helmet on.
priceless	The original painting was priceless .
heartless	It was heartless to not say thank you after all they had done to help him.
shameless	His father was shameless and would always embarrass him with his shameless dancing.
flavourless	The gruel was flavourless yet Oliver still asked for more as he was so hungry.
meaningless	The words were meaningless if you did not speak the language.
awareness	When playing hockey, it is important to have spatial awareness.
laziness	Her parents would often tell her off for her laziness.
loneliness	She felt a sense of loneliness after her children moved out of the house.
aggressiveness	The rugby player's aggressiveness meant that no one liked to play against him.
fearlessness	He was known for his fearlessness having been skydiving and having swum with sharks.

forgetfulness	The old man's forgetfulness meant that he kept losing things.
cheeriness	Her cheeriness made the classroom a happier place for everyone.
gloominess	The gloominess of the day was made even worse when it started to rain.
stubbornness	His leg was hurt, and only his stubbornness prevented him from crying.