

Spelling list: ive suffix

active	My grandpa is very active despite his age.
massive	That footballer is paid a massive amount of money.
expensive	My very expensive new saucepan was advertised as being non-stick.
competitive	The parent race on Sports Day is very competitive .
positive	Jean is very negative about his work but Tom is more positive .
narrative	A narrative tells the story of a series of events, usually in a short story or novel.
decorative	The wallpaper had a very decorative pattern.
sensitive	A sensitive person can be easily upset.
exclusive	They were honoured to be invited to attend the exclusive party.
explosive	There was a large blast from the explosive .
effective	The animal mask was an effective disguise.
offensive	He was a very rude and offensive person.
corrosive	Acid is corrosive to metal.
conclusive	The evidence was conclusive and so the judge sent him to jail.
comprehensive	It was a comprehensive reading list.
oppressive	The dictator was very oppressive .
excessive	Excessive eating causes bad health.
inquisitive	An inquisitive child asks many questions.