

Spelling list: Exploring Science 7ia

Fossil Fuels and energy transferred	Energy is never lost, it is transferred from one form to another.

energy	A fuel is something that contains a store of energy .
generated	Most of the electricity we use is generated in power stations.
coal	Coal is a fossil fuel that was formed millions of years ago from plants.
gas	Oil and gas are fossil fuels that were formed from tiny animals and plants that lived in the sea millions of years ago.
oil	Coal, oil and gas are all called non-renewable fuels, this means they cannot be replaced.
fossil	A fossil is the remains of a dead animal or plant that became trapped in layers of sediment and turned into rock.
renewable	A renewable energy resource is one that can be replaced.
sustainable	Sustainable energy can be carried on without wasting things or harming the natural world.
global	Global warming constitutes towards climate change.