

Spelling list: Test 20th Feb Course 33. -ant or -end endings.

Decide whether to use -ant or -ent endings for these words.

occupant            The next door house has a new occupant .

parliament        She's standing for election to Parliament.

permanent        Temporary is the opposite of permanent .

triumphant        The winning team were triumphant .

convenient        Will it be convenient to call tomorrow?

accountant        I have an accountant to do my tax forms.

equivalent        Six tens is the equivalent of twenty threes.

dominant          She is more dominant than her sister.

defendant        The defendant pleaded not guilty.

reluctant        He was reluctant to answer my question.

absorbent        This cloth is extremely absorbent .

opponent        I should beat my next opponent easily.

there            There was great relief at the rescue.

they're          I wonder why they're so late.

your            I to the end will be your friend.

you're          You're looking very smart today.