

Spelling list: GCSE Religious Studies: Catholic Christianity 2

Key words for GCSE Religious Studies.

Irenaeus	St. Irenaeus was a 2nd century Christian theologian.
judgement	Judgement is the belief that God will judge humans based upon on their actions in life.
justice	Justice means fairness in the way people are treated.
kingdom	The Kingdom of God refers to God's reign over the Earth.
Catherine	Catherine LaCunga is a 20th century Catholic theologian and the writer of 'God for Us'.
LaCunga	Catherine LaCunga is a 20th century Catholic theologian and the writer of 'God for Us'.
last	A Catholic's last rites are the prayers given to a dying person before death.
rites	The last rites are normally performed by a priest for somebody who is about to die.
law	Law is a literary form found in the Bible, appearing as rule or commands.
lectern	The lectern is a feature of the Catholic Church, it is used as a stand to read the Bible from.
Liturgy	The word Liturgy describes public acts of worship within the Catholic faith.
Lords	The Lord's prayer is a widely said prayer taught by Jesus to his disciples.
prayer	The Lord's prayer is also known as 'Our Father'.
magisterium	Magisterium is the teaching authority of the Catholic Church.
mission	The 'Mission' refers to the duty of Christians to spread the gospel.
	Natural Law is the belief in the natural order of the world as created by natural	God.

Nicene	The Nicene Creed is the statement of Christian faith agreed by Bishops at the Council of Nicaea in 325.
creed	The Nicene Creed is a formal statement of the tenets of Christian belief.
omnipotent	Christian's believe that God is omnipotent , meaning all-powerful.
paschal	The Paschal mystery refers to the events around Jesus' death and resurrection and their significance to us.