Spelling list: QEGS Maths2

Second general Maths keywords list.

integer | An integer is a whole number.

even | Even numbers are numbers that divide by two without remainder.

odd | Odd numbers are numbers that give a remainder when divided by two.

negative | Negative numbers are number less than zero.

positive | Positive numbers are numbers more than zero.

prime | A prime number is a number that doesn't divide by anything except one.

factor | Factor - also called a divisor - is a whole number that divides exactly into another number.

multiples | Multiples are numbers in their own times table; for example, six, nine, twelve are all multiples of three.

average | Average is the total divided by how many numbers added together.

mean | Mean is another word for average: the total divided by how many numbers added together.

square | A square number is a number multiplied by itself.

cube | A cube number is a number multiplied by itself three times.

root | The square root is the number that when multiplied by itself is the given number; for example three is the square root of nine.

decimal | The decimal is a bit more or less than a whole number, written using a point; for example, 2.5.

recurring | A recurring number is a number that goes on forever; for example, a third of ten is 3 point 33 recurring .