

Spelling list: Very Difficult Words

An extra challenge!

insidious	The boys insidious attitude affected everyone.
exonerate	The case was so strong that the judge had no choice but to exonerate the man.
distinguish	The teacher was unable to distinguish between the two new students as they were identical twins.
technicality	The fact that the timings were wrong meant that the criminals were realeased on a technicality .
effervescent	The effervescent bottle of soda water exploded after it was shaken.
quintessence	Lady Dianne was the quintessence of grace and humanity.
Obliviously	The boys ran down the street obvliviously, believing that they were the only people there.
unyielding	The Atlantic threw its waves at the unyielding rocks.
omnipotent	To be omnipotent is to have power over everything.
omniscient	God is omniscient .
delirious	Julie was delirious about her new job.
infatuated	The girl was infatuated with the boy, but she couldn't even speak to him!
fascinating	Seeing the animals in the zoo was fascinating .
consequently	John smashed the window, consequently he was in trouble.
necessary	Is it necessary to learn to spell properly?
sublime	Romanticism is a an art movement which celebrates the idea of the Sublime and the importance of the individuals sensibility over everything else.

subtlety

There was a certain subtlety about the words he used to approach her.