

Spelling list: Exploring Science 7Ea-Eb

Chemistry - safety

hazard	A hazard is something that could be a danger.
corrosive	Substances that attack metals, stonework and skin are called corrosive .
concentrated	Something that has a large amount of substance in it and very little water is concentrated .
dilute	To dilute is to make a liquid weaker or thinner by adding more liquid, often water.
irritant	An irritant is something that irritates the skin and eyes.
acid	A substance that turns litmus red and has a PH of less than 7 is called an acid .
alkali	A substance that turns litmus blue and has a PH of more than 7 is called an alkali .
pickling	Pickling is when foods are preserved by keeping them in vinegar.