

Spelling list: Exploring Science 7Da - 7Dc

Biology - variation

variation	Differences between organisms are known as variation .
organism	An organism is any living thing.
offspring	An offspring is any plant or animal formed by reproduction.
continuous	With continuous variation there is a range of values that change gradually, for example height or weight.
inherit	We inherit features from our parents.
environmental	Environmental variation is variation in an organism caused by its environment.
classification	Sorting things into groups is called classification .