

Spelling list: Y4 Quiz on 27.1.16

Rule: The suffix- ly is added to an adjective to form an adverb. ly starts with a consonant and so is added straight on to most root words. (exceptions, next week) sadly Tragedy is a story or play which tells of terrible events and usually ends sadly .

completely My conscience is completely clear.

usually Puppies are usually excitable.

finally The group finally reached safety.

comically He tumbled over comically .

slowly The river flows slowly here.

thankfully Thankfully i remembered to close the door.

suddenly The car suddenly stopped.

promptly

beautifully They danced beautifully across the floor.