

Spelling list: LAURUS Year 7 - Twelfth Night 2

affairs	Affairs in this context are matters that are a particular person's concern or responsibility.
resembled	If two people resembled each other, it would mean that they looked very similar. For example, Viola resembled her twin brother Sebastian.
misdemeanour	A misdemeanour is a minor wrong doing but it is not illegal.
distressed	If someone is distressed , they are feeling anxious.
countess	A countess is an important woman that is the wife of a count or earl.
baffled	To be baffled is to be confused or bewildered.
fretful	To be fretful is to express distress and worry.
uncivilised	If someone is described as being uncivilised , they are impolite, rude and behave in a socially unacceptable manner.
vile	If something is vile , it is disgusting and extremely unpleasant.
quailed	Quailed is verb which means to show fear or apprehension through body language.
fraught	If someone is described as fraught , they are affected by anxiety or stress.
reef	A reef is the jagged rock and coral found on the seabed in the ocean.
trunk	A trunk is a large box used for transporting clothes.
page	In Twelfth Night, a page is a young male attendant or servant.